

Capital's War on Labor, Labor's Civil Wars

Steve Early

Steve Early is a labor journalist and lawyer who has written for numerous publications. He is the author of Embedded With Organized Labor: Journalistic Reflections on the Class War at Home and The Civil Wars in U.S. Labor. Early was a Boston-based international representative or organizer for the Communications Workers of America for 27 years. He will be speaking about the recent Verizon and Kaiser strikes, the on-going struggle for real healthcare reform, the importance of union democracy, and worker resistance to concessions in the private and public sector
